We love what we do.

Post Script Films began in 2010 and since then, we have filmed over 200 weddings in Pittsburgh and other cities along the East Coast. We are always searching for those meaningful moments, both big and small, that paint the full picture of your wedding day. Our goal is to create a beautiful film that transports you back to one of the happiest days of your life.

Every couple and every event is treated with respect as our goal is to simply blend into the background and capture moments as they unfold. We will not treat your wedding venue like a movie set by disrupting the day with distracting equipment. Our filmmakers are professional, respectful and personable and we work together with vendors to achieve the common goal of making sure our couples have a flawless event!

Some Frequently Asked Questions About Our Packages

Do you offer drone footage?

We can offer drone footage for an additional charge and pending any airspace restrictions. Inquire about the details!

What's the benefit of having two filmmakers?

Having two filmmakers has many benefits. If the couple gets ready at different locations, our filmmakers can split up and capture each person's preparations. During the ceremony and reception, two filmmakers ensure you have a variety of camera angles to increase visual interest. Also, two cameras can give you a sense of security. Often, guests lean into the aisle to take a photo (obstructing our view) and vendors/staff can accidentally bump into us.

What do you mean by "consecutive" hours?

We have to charge by consecutive hours, not by the literal time our cameras are rolling. Any travel required to get from the ceremony to the venue counts towards the number of hours booked.

I'm camera shy; should I get a wedding film?

We understand that being in front of the camera is not everyone's favorite thing to do, but we still think that camera-shy couples can have an enjoyable experience with a wedding filmmaker! It's important to select someone you're comfortable around and that you get along with. Our team can sense when someone is uncomfortable, so we make sure to capture them in a more candid, out-of-the-way style. We rarely ask couples to stage moments; we prefer that you act natural! Our goal is for you to not even notice we are filming.

Our ceremony location has strict rules; will you be able to abide by them?

Absolutely. Being respectful to venues, guests, and our couples is our top priority! Prior to the ceremony, we always seek out the coordinator or officiant and ask what their rules are as well as go over our locations for filming with them. It's important that everyone is on the same page so everyone can effectively do their job.

Do you use tripods on wheels, spotlights, or other distracting equipment?

We never use any equipment that could be deemed 'distracting'. We never use additional lights or anything on wheels. All stabilizing equipment like tripods, monopods, and steadicams are compact and we make sure to keep our equipment neat and tidy and out of the way.

How many hours of footage do I get?

The total amount of edited footage you receive will depend on the contents of your package and the length of your ceremony and toasts. Typically online trailers are 2 minutes and films range from 7-12 minutes. If your package includes the full ceremony, then that video file will be the exact length of your actual ceremony.
